THE GREAT CHINESE REMEDY DR CONINE'S Syrup of GINSENG AND MALVA.—This medicine depends more upon its own virtue and actual merit than any other eve before offered to the public. In China, it is the potent and effectual remedy for Affections of the Lungs: but what will particularly attract attention, is its astonishing Dissolvent power, by which it at once removes all Phlegm, or extraneous matter, from the Throat, Stomach or Lungs. It is therefore Anti-Expectorant, and from attestations of trial here, it is now offered as Nature's kindest remed for the removal of Consumption, Whooping Cough and all Coughs, by precipitating the phlegm, instead of creating irritation by expectoration.

It is aromatic, and increases the general warmth possessing the exhillarating qualities of the Te Plant, which is one great cause of its universal popularity in all India, beyond the Ganges, while as a Dyspeptic Remedy and Appetiser, it has probably an equal in the whole vegetable kingdom. The interesting history of the Ginseng, &c., is to be had in pamphlets, gratis.
